V-S-I-O

(to the tune of Y-M-C-A)

Salesman, I hear that retail's passé.
Who cares? Salesman, we're going corporate today.
And then, salesman, with your foot in the door,
Sign here and it's volume galore!

E-com! It's the buzz of the day.
Code word: B-K, you can have it your way.
Ka-ching! Download, Visio bits in the pipe,
Hope that you've got a T-1-line!

In ticker-talk we mean V-S-I-O
On NASDAQ check out that V-S-I-O
Gotta sell when it's high, if the stock takes a slide
Buy more 'cause we've got HUGE UP SIDE

We're undervalued at V-S-I-O
Five years of profits at V-S-I-O
Japan's still got a yen for our product, hooray!
And we're ready for Y-2-K.

Freemont, seems like lifetimes ago.
And then, Westlake! We continue to grow.
On to... Pike street, filling floor after floor,
'Till the building wouldn't hold no more.

Where next? Move to Renton instead?
Eee-yeu! No way! Think I'd rather be dead.
Go West, Bell street, building's made just for you.
Loads of space and great mountain views.

It's fun to work here at V-S-I-O
Great sunset views here at V-S-I-O
Counting ship after ship, it's a spectator sport,
I sure like it down at the port!

We're all together at V-S-I-O
Big happy family at V-S-I-O
Been apart for so long, with H-R on the go,
Hundreds of faces I DON'T KNOW!

We'll give you training at V-S-I-O
Learn workplace manners at V-S-I-O
You'll attain excellence, in an op'ration'l way,
Post your MBOs ev'-ry day!

V-S-I-O ... Got Husky boxes at V-S-I-O
Young man, relax, if your boss is a freak,
Young man, chill out, 'cause we re-org each week!

V-S-I-O ... stick with a winner at ... V-S-I-O
Health club, cell phones, oh what more could you seek?
Coffee, fruit juice, and free bagels each week!

V-S-I-O ... there's no place better than ... V-S-I-O
Young man, Young man, toil hard never fear,
Young man, you might, be a V-P next year!

V-S-I-O ... man, you gotta love ... V-S-I-O
Young man, young man, I was once unemployed,
Young man, today, I am so overjoyed!

Official Disclaimer

The yearbook staff was horrified to discover that the printer mistakenly used "gag" captions for the photos instead of the official captions. It seems that the Visio caption file, which was sent via email to the printer, included several extra pages, which they accidentally opened and used. The responsible parties have already been identified and will complete the term sausage. Unfortunately, grinding the term working in the cafeteria, there was no way to correct the error before press time. Please accept our apologies, put political correctness aside, and laugh along with us.

A Word From Our Superintendent

JanuarY2K

Graduates, Alumni and Friends:

When some of you joined us at Axon Elementary, these many years ago, we were young (ok, somewhat) and feelin' groovy on our campus at the Center of the Universe in Fremont. We were just little pre-1.0's at the time, but soon we moved on to better digs at Westlake (and lots more homework) at ~~Shapewear~~ Shapewear Middle School. It was Shapes, Shapes, Shapes, not unlike some of the other Middle School preoccupations. But we had our own "Shape Master"! (yes - that was his actual title). Our school victories led us on to international releases and even more new Visio products. Then we matriculated to Pike Jr. High, where we began our international exchange student programs starting in Dublin. We decorated the halls with our school colors, reflex blue and PMS 802 green, and started playing away-games (trade shows). In spite of those students caught smoking on campus, skipping classes for a Monorail Espresso and/or a Happy Teriyaki fix, school spirit soared. We became a strong, motivated team with a real hard drive and a drag and drop attitude...even when we ran out of memory. Naturally, our game scores improved dramatically, then everyone wanted to attend Pike Jr. High, too! We were bursting at the seams, so we had to send some transfer students out to other campuses, which made for a difficult time for all.

Finally, we had our own new, sound-view, custom campus - Visio High!! OUR SCHOOL RULES!!! Our mascot, Mr. Shapey, attended all assemblies and pep rallies, and it was rumored that kegs of beer were flowing from the decks, although we all know that this is strictly against school policy! Through all the proms, picnics, palm readings, tattoos, casino nights, Cajun Polka parties, golf tourneys, and even rumored sightings of faculty relaxing in hula skirts and coconut shape-wear, we have truly enjoyed the pleasure of each other's company.

Graduates, as you move forward through life's rich pageant, know that you will never again experience the special bond that we have shared here at Visio. In the words of Sisters Sledge: "We Are Fam-i-ly".

Your SuperSmartShape® Superintendent

Pirated copy, not approved by legal, all the better.

So, here's to you all...

Here's to you fellow Visio-ites, colleagues tried and true.
Here's to your spouses, mates and friends who put up with late nights a few.
Here's to the Visio drawing passion that makes the computer smile,
Sometimes bringing challenges, yet making life worthwhile.
So VDK, Express and Home went down the tubes, alas.
5 for 95 nearly laid us out in the grass.
But the strong base of Visio products,
Standard, Tech, Enterprise and Pro,
Put us on the map, made us proud and helped us grow.

I remember the days of one bagel table.
We'd all stand around discussing Seinfeld fables
While we waited patiently for Lori Pearce
To bring back the bagels we would eat so fierce.

Back in the early days, the Sales Pit had a bell,
That each time there was a sale, Greg Matthews would ring so as to tell.
Trade booths were set up by employees who did it all,
Worked the booth, demonstrated the products, knocked it down
And packed it up, every little piece and all.

In 1992 we held our first sales department lunch at the Hilton in the city.
It is hard to believe the department was only 5 people
in its entirety.

We thought 5 for 95 was going to be HUGE!
We filled a warehouse in Canada with 6000 units
people were sure to not refuse.
Well, that ol' warehouse collapsed to the ground,
Just as 5 for 95 turned out to be a let-down.
The tragedy ended up to be the best disposal ever mapped.
As it turned out, the square box products couldn't be shrink-wrapped.

So now fellow Visio-ites, bring memory to your aid
In fancy let us stand once more in memories so grand.
Recall to mind each smiling face we have known and worked with though the years
As we give a cheer for all our peers.
Health, happiness, prosperity, success in all you do!
Here's to Visio, here's to VSIO, here's to you!
